Simply Wall St Dividend Rating: ★★★★☆☆

Overview: B&C Speakers S.p.A. produces and markets professional loudspeakers under the B&C brand across various global regions, with a market cap of €195.27 million.

Operations: The company's revenue is primarily derived from its Acoustic Transducers segment, which generated €102.34 million.

Dividend Yield:

B&C Speakers offers a dividend yield of 5.57%, ranking in the top 25% of Italian dividend payers. However, its dividends are not well covered by free cash flows, with a high cash payout ratio of 104.7%. Despite this, the payout ratio is reasonable at 60.2% when considering earnings coverage. The company has shown strong earnings growth recently and trades at a favorable price-to-earnings ratio compared to peers, but its dividend history has been volatile and unreliable over the past decade.

Simply Wall St Dividend Rating: ★★★★☆☆
